Cache Valley People First Kickoff Planned

Sue Reeves

04/24/2014

The Cache Valley chapter of People First of Utah will kick off with a Cinco de Mayo party on Thursday, May 8 from 5 to 6:30 p.m. The event is sponsored by OPTIONS for Independence, 106 East 1120 North in Logan. There will be drawings, dinner, the chance to get together with friends, and an opportunity to learn more about starting the Cache Valley chapter of People First.

People First is a self-advocacy organization that assists people with developmental disabilities learn how to advocate for themselves, increase their independence and become part of their community.

For more information, contact Anna Sherlock at 753-5353 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Share This Story