Get an Iconic burger and fries plus reserved seating at Morty's for the Freedom Fire show on July 3 for only $20! Proceeds benefit the CAC's Community Investment Award

Morty's, a popular restaurant located adjacent to Utah State University, has partnered with the Center for Persons with Disabilities for an event that hopes to fund the Consumer Advisory Council's Community Investment Award.

On July 3, Morty's is offering an Iconic burger and fries, plus reserved outdoor seating and a parking token, for a great view of the Freedom Fire fireworks show, for only $20 (or gather some friends and get 6 for $100). Reserved seating begins at 9 p.m. on July 3. If you aren't planning to view the fireworks that evening, Morty's will donate 10 percent of any purchase made on July 3 to the CAC.

"This is a great way for people to get some delicious food from Morty's, watch the Freedom Fire show from a fantastic vantage point, and help fund the Community Investment Award, which gives $500 twice a year to a non-profit agency in Utah that provides services for people with disabilities," said Shane Johnson, associate director of development at the CPD.

Tickets are available at Morty's or at the CPD Main Office.
