

First Director of the CPD, Dr. Marvin Fifield, Dies | CPD

Kelly Smith

12/08/2015

Dr. Marvin Fifield

We are saddened to announce that the first director of the CPD, Dr. Marvin Fifield, passed away suddenly last Friday. Dr. Fifield was the founding force at the Center for Persons with Disabilities, originally called the Exceptional Child Center. His lasting influence in the field of developmental disabilities in our community, state, and across the nation will impact individuals with disabilities and their families for years to come.

Read more about this remarkable man's major contributions in our tribute to his legacy.