

They're here!

Sue Reeves

03/02/2015

The spring break students from Minnesota are here!

Students from the College of St. Benedict and St. John's University in Minnesota have arrived, and you can welcome them today at the annual CPD Nacho Party! The festivities begin at noon in room 170.

These students arrived yesterday in Logan for an Alternative Break Experience, and will perform-service related activities at the CPD all week.

There's still time to submit your entries for the caption contest, the trivia contest and the guess-how-many-hot-tamales-are-in-the-jar contest! Send your entries to Sharon in the front office.