The Up to 3 Early Intervention program at Utah State University's Center for Persons with Disabilities will present an Early Childhood Information Fair from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday, July 18 at Elk Ridge Park (1100 East 2500 North Meadow View in North Logan). The fair is presented in conjunction with North Logan Parks and Recreation.

The fair will feature information on early childhood community resources for children from birth to age 5 and lots of activities for kids and families, said Sue Olsen, director of Exemplary Services at the CPD. All of the information and many activities are free. Food will be available for purchase. Donations will be accepted to help support the construction of an accessible splash table at the North Logan Splash Pad.

There will be a bounce house and hourly raffles and silent auctions of products and services from local vendors and people from around the community.
